LETTER TO THE EXAMINER

Sir:

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.121(d), Applicant hereby requests the Examiner's approval of the drawing changes attached herewith and indicated in red.

Referring now to FIGS. 1A1, 1A2, 1B, 1C1, 1C2, 1C3, 1D1, 1D2, 1E1, 1E2, 1E3, 1E4, 1E5, 1F, 2A, 2B and 2C, such FIGURES have been amended to include the reference "Prior Art." The drawing changes add no new matter pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.121(f) and find support in the specification as originally filed.

Referring now to FIGS. 1C1, 1C2, and 1C3 as amended, Figure 1C1 was inadvertently not given a Figure number. Accordingly, such Figure has been amended to include a Figure number. Additionally, Figures 1C2 and 1C3 have been amended to accommodate the label of Figure 1C1 (as amended). The drawing changes add no new matter pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.121(f) and find support in the specification as originally filed.

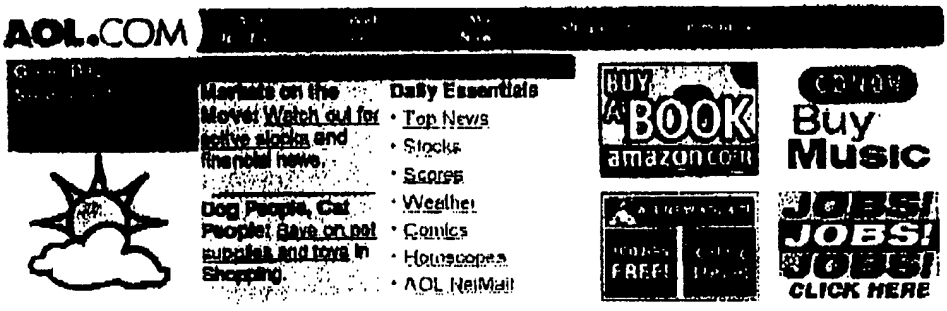

Referring now to FIGS. 3A-3F, reference numerals have been inserted into the specification and thus added to the FIGS. 3A-3F. The drawing changes add no new matter pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.121(f) and find support in the specification as originally filed.

In view of the above remarks, it is respectfully submitted that the amendments to the drawings should be approved. If the Examiner feels a telephone conference will expedite this matter in anyway, the Examiner is invited to contact the undersigned attorney at (908) 654-8000 in order to resolve any outstanding issues and expedite this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Venus of Milo

Ancient status of Aphrodite, now in Paris at the Louvre; carved by a sculptor of Antioch on the Maeander River in 150 BC, it was found on Melos in 1820. The general composition derives from a 4th-century Corinthian status. The action and modernized drapery give the Venus great nobility. The status is a conspicuous example of the Hellenistic sculptural tradition's academic traits and close reliance on older masterpieces.
